

A1 - Account Request Form

After submission and processing of this form, you will receive a response with a unique identifier. This unique identifier should be used by others to follow you. On all future forms, this unique identifier combined with your secret passphrase will securely verify your identity. If you have additional information you would like to include in your file, please include it with this form. It will be viewable by others who request your profile.

REQUIREMENTS FOR SUBMISSION

Please mail the completed form via USPS to the address provided on the homepage of www.opsnm.org with adequate postage. If you would like to start following other users immediately upon signup please attach an F2 - User Follow Request Form.

FEES

In order to receive a response to your submission you must include sufficient postage for the response form. OPSNM DOES NOT PROVIDE POSTAGE FOR ANY COMMUNICATIONS. If you wish to receive more communications from OPSNM please include additional postage for future messages. Communications such as notifications and messages from other users will buffer, but not be sent until a user has sufficient postage on file. OPSNM will keep additional postage in your user file and use for future notifications and messages. OPSNM will notify you when your postage on file is running low.

PROCESSING TIME

Please allow a sufficient number of business days for processing and response.

PRIVACY POLICY

Your address and passphrase will be kept private, but everything else on file can be requested by any user at any time. If someone pays enough money, your address will be provided as well. Your passphrase will never be given out unless OPSNM is paid a very large amount of money. Please contact for inquiry.

USERNAME

Your name will be kept on file and used in communications with other users. NOTE: This is not the name used for adding followers. Please use your unique identifier which will be assigned to you once your application has been processed.

ADDRESS

This is the address all future communications will be sent to. If you wish to change your address in the future, please mail an A4 - Account Update Request Form to the OPSNM.

PASSPHRASE

Please include a passphrase. This passphrase will be required for all other communications to be valid. Do not forget your passphrase or you will lose your account. The passphrase can be anything, as long as you can reproduce it on future forms.
